CUMBERLAND & PERRY COUNTY COMMUNITY SUPPORT PROGRAM

Our Goals

Creating Coalitions: To foster communication and collaborative partnerships among people in recovery, families, professionals, and community groups.

Advocacy: To review and make recommendations regarding County, Regional, State and National services, policies, legislation, and regulations that impact persons in recovery, their families, and the community.

Community Integration: To support recovery from behavioral health challenges by advocating for equal access, opportunities, and choices in education, health care, housing, meaningful work and relationships, transportation and spiritual and leisure activities that represent the character of the community.

Comprehensive Services: To ensure that community-based behavioral health services and support systems are comprehensive, available, accessible, appropriate, and accountable.

Education: To influence and create positive attitudes, behaviors, and knowledge about individuals with behavioral health challenges, families, and services. To ensure training and technical assistance in CSP Principles and exemplary practices are provided to persons in recovery, family members, professionals, community decision-makers and the public.

Our Mission

The Community Support Program, or CSP, of Pennsylvania is an alliance of individuals with lived experience, family members, and professionals working together to aid individuals with mental health challenges and co-occurring conditions to live successfully in the community.

About Us

The Cumberland & Perry Community Support Program is made up of individuals with lived experience, family members, providers, professionals, and community members, and collaborates to enhance services and supports for individuals. We advise the local MH/IDD/EI office and promote collaboration among providers, organizations, and stakeholders.
